SAYS PLANT JUICE IS SO WONDERFUL

Washington Man Claims Since He Took Plant Juice Life Is Worth Living.

Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy, brings the sunshine of health to a poor body that has long lingered in the winter of sickness. Many local men and women who have been suffering from stomach disorders, with its accompanying distressing symptoms, have felt the sunshine of health, as their numerous testimonials show.

Mr. F. C. Crampton, of No. 1465-1-2 Fourteenth street, N. W., who is a well-known Washington citizen, recently gave the following signed statement:

"For two years I have suffered with stomach trouble and all the food I ate would ferment in my stomach and cause gas to form. I was in the worst kind of misery and was so nervous and restless I could not sleep at night; my liver was affected and I was very dizzy at times, and had headaches all of the time. My whole system was badly run down and I did not seem to have any ambition or energy to do anything. I had read so much about your Plant Juice in our home papers that I finally decided to try it myself. Two bottles have made me feel fine; I can eat my meals and enjoy them; I sleep well and am not nervous, and I do not have any more dizzy spells or headaches. I feel that life is worth living again, and I am recommending Plant Juice to every one I meet, for I think it is the most wonderful medicine in the world. My wife has taken it for constipation, with the same good results. I had I am glad to give this public endorsement for it."

Such words as these and those of many others which have been printed, have wide influence, for they come from men of standing and integrity, who have given Plant Juice a fair trial and have been greatly benefited thereby.

The Plant Juice man is at the People's Drug Store, corner of Seventh and E streets northwest, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

"Turn to the Right" Promises Pleasure for National Patrons

Washington next week will have an opportunity to see one of the reigning successes of New York when "Turn to the Right" opens a week's engagement at the New National Theater with a matinee Monday. This new famous comedy by Wincho Smith, author of "The Fortune Hunter," "The Boomerang," "Officer 666," and other big successes, is now playing in its sixth month in New York with every probability of remaining for another year.

Another company has been organized to play Chicago and en route it will fill an engagement in Baltimore and here. In this organization are a number of the Washington favorites including Mabel Bert, Jessie Glendinning, Ralph Morgan, Helen Collier, Philip Bishop, James Tolan, William Foran, Robert Taber, Charles Goodrich, James Huntley, Dorothy Betts and others.

B. F. Keith's—Vaudeville.
Olive Wyndham, the latest notable recruit for vaudeville from the dramatic stage where her beauty and talent won wide recognition in "The Man from Home," "The Flying Dutchman," and "The Girl in the Red Velvet," will be the star at the B. F. Keith's Theater next week. There will be three performances on New Year's Day, on other days only the usual two-a-day.

Edw. J. McCombs, with his "The Spectacular Aquatic Session," "Holidays' Dream." New funmakers will be introduced in Hans Wilson and the McNallys.

Yvette Rugel, Harry and Eva Puck, Will Morrissey, "The eminent violinist," Mme. du Florigny, Herbert's loop-the-loop dogs, the pipe organ recitals, and international news pictorial.

Poli's—"Which One Shall I Marry?"
The eternal question foremost in the mind of every man and every woman has been selected as the theme for an allegorical play, "Which One Shall I Marry?" which will be the attraction at Poli's, beginning next Monday night with matinees Monday (New Year's Day), Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

The production has been made under the direction of Edward W. Rowland and Lorin J. Howard, and these managers have provided it with stage settings that are unique, colorful and massive. A cast far above the ordinary seen in the popular price houses presents the play. Miss Marguerite Henry is seen as Agnes, the young girl in the quantity. Alvin Arnold appears as the poor man, and the remainder of the cast includes Dolle Day, Lotta Emmons, Edgar Murray, Tommy Shearer, Charles Richards, and several others.

Loew's Columbia—Feature Films.
Marguerite Clark in "Snow White," which will remain the attraction at Loew's Columbia for the remainder of the week, has materialized in a photograph that is breaking all records at this theater for attendance. Marguerite Clark gives one of her most delightful portrayals in the title role and is supported by an admirable cast. "Snow White" is for the "kiddies," but adult audiences seem to enjoy the wholly beautiful production as much as the children.

The production is an ideal Christmas spectacle and is sure to cheer the worst case of blues. Beginning Sunday and for the first half of next week Pauline Frederick will be seen in "The Slave Market," a story of the Spanish Main.

Moore's Garden—Clara Kimball Young.
Clara Kimball Young, the beautiful and talented screen star, will grace the program at Moore's Garden Theater the entire New Year's week, beginning Sunday in her latest film triumph, "The Pious Virgin." The supporting cast especially chosen by Miss Young for their fitness for the various characters they are called upon to portray before the camera includes Conway Tearle, Catherine Proctor, Paul Cassell, Sheridan Tansey, Marie Linn, Edward Eklas, Agnes Mapes and William Welsh.

Supplementary attractions during the week will include "Jerry on a Cannibal Island," an animated cartoon comedy by Hobart, a travesty embracing a tour through the Western Digest. A special musical score arranged for "The Pious Virgin" will be rendered by the Garden Symphony Orchestra.

Moore's Strand—Feature Films.
Many unusually fine photo plays are included in the program arranged for New Year's week at the Strand Theater, the chief attraction from Sunday to Tuesday inclusive being Dorothy Dalton and William Desmond in a thrilling film offering entitled "A Gamble in Souls."

On Wednesday and Thursday Charles Ray will make his initial local appearance as a full fledged film star in a novel comedy by Hobart, "The Honorable Algy." The added attraction will bring to the screen Ralph Herin in a farcical comedy, "A Matinee Idol." On Friday and Saturday Howard Hickman and Clara Williams, late of "Civilization" will be featured in an up-to-date drama entitled "The Criminal."

The program in addition will include Mack Sennett's latest Keystone comedy, "Safety First Ambrose," featuring the heavy-weight Mack Swain and other Keystone players. Special music by the Strand Symphony Orchestra will add to the attractiveness of the various film offerings.

Bolivian railways are substituting wood for coal, owing to higher prices of coal, resulting from the difficulty of obtaining ocean transportation from the United States.

AMERICAN FLAG SAVES BRITISH MERCHANTMAN

U-Boat Commander, Believing Vessel of U. S. Register, Lets Her Proceed.

(By the International News Service.)
Havre, Dec. 27.—The American flag saved the steamer Sacramento from being torpedoed in the English Channel, her captain stated here today on his arrival with a cargo of wheat from Buenos Ayres.

A German submarine, Capt. Plater said, stopped the vessel in the channel and demanded his papers. After looking them over he told him the Sacramento could proceed, saying:

"You are carrying wheat to France, which we consider contraband. Its lucky for you that your vessel is American, otherwise we would have torpedoed you with great pleasure. You can go. Good luck!"

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 27.—The steamer Sacramento, owned by the Havre dispatch as having been stopped and then allowed to proceed because the submarine commander believed her American, has played a sardonic joke on Germany.

The Sacramento is no longer an American vessel, but British.

At this season of the year much damage is done by the driver who either does not appreciate what skidding is or who does not know how to take a chance of not only injuring his car and himself as well as someone else. Someone has defined skidding as being in a predicament, having it slip away from under and not knowing where you are going.

Correctly speaking, skidding is a term applied to slide slipping or motion of the rear end of the vehicle. It also includes a forward motion with the wheels sliding, due to the brakes being locked. On extremely slippery roads, it is to be feared that a skid will occur on the right side, it naturally skids to the right. Slightly releasing the brakes and steering in the direction in which the skid occurs will check it. Unfortunately, an emergency stop nearly always causes a skid and if the car is not stopped it will strike the obstruction. If room permits turn the front wheels opposite the direction of the skid and turn the vehicle completely around.

A skid due to applying the brakes when there are no anti-skid devices on a car cannot be avoided if driving fast and a sudden stop is made. This sort of a skid is most dangerous. The skid due to too great application of power to the rear wheels does not usually result disastrously.

Therefore, as the winter weather continues and the streets wet and treacherously slippery the careful driver will avoid the cause of a skid and save himself and his car, and the car and person of someone else, perhaps.

FOUR JURORS CHOSEN FOR TRIAL OF SMALL

Brother's Pallor Changes to Flush as Wife's Relatives Enter Room.

(By the International News Service.)
Oesikep, N. H., Dec. 27.—With four jurors in the box, the work of settling twelve men to decide the guilt of Frederick L. Small, Boston broker, accused of brutally murdering his wife, was resumed in the little mountain court house here today.

Calm, stoical, and without a visible trace of emotion, the gray little man watched indifferently as rural talesmen filtered in and out of the box. Everything about the trial seems gray—the prisoner with his gray hair, mustache, and wild white beard, the little court house, and the mountain ranges which rear on every side.

Only once did Small change the set look on his face. That was when Mrs. Elizabeth M. Curry and her daughter, Elizabeth, mother and sister of his wife, came into the court room and took seats directly behind him. A pink flush broke the grayish pallor of his face, but he made no sign.

It was stated today by attorneys that Small himself will take the stand in his own defense. From his own lips the jury will learn the tragedy of the cottage by the lake, in the ruins of which Mrs. Arlene Curry Small's half-burned corpse was found.
